At the Museums

By Elissa Whittleton

SMAA Board and Facilities committee members Nick Whittleton and David Hauenstein, have removed the original Masonic benches from the perimeter of the museum upstairs, but have left the east end chairs and benches to reflect the original Masonic history of our wonderful building.

The removal has allowed for more space to assemble new displays and utilize more of our historical inventory.

At the Log Cabin

Our pictures with Santa the first two weekends of December were once again a huge success. We have been very fortunate also to be open most Sundays this winter due to the love and care put into the log cabin by two very special volunteers, Charlotte and Lori.

Our Orchard family this year (1919), recovering from the Great War, are preoccupied with the growing women's suffrage movement.

Come visit! Open most Sundays from 11 am to 3 pm. and starting May 4th, open every Saturday and Sunday.

In December, The Port Orchard Chamber gave Nick Taylor, of the Dragonfly Theater, their award for South Kitsap Young Professional of the Year. Nick and the Dragonfly are wonderful supporters of the Sidney Museum and Arts Association, and our first corporate sponsor.

The theater is set in the heart of old Port Orchard, built in the 1920s and upgraded with comfortable seats, ample leg room, and great popcorn. They are committed to presenting great movies with strong stories and favorite films from the past.
